Intro

Strophe
9 'o clock a.m.
I lay in my bed an dream before the noise wake me up once again, an airplane

Strophe
I turn my Radio on to hear what's in the world going on they were talk about an starfighter crash this gave me another flash

Refrain
So beware
there's danger in the air
some people know's it
there`s danger in the air

Strophe

The newsspeaker is tellin' that the air control are on strike because the work is to much He says:
In the air is it so crowed that you get the feeling you're on the road

Refrain

some people know's it
